Peter Fortier of Boswell avenue was given a farewell party Monday evening by a number of his friends, as he is soon to leave for Rutland, Vt., where soon to leave for Rutland, Vt., where he has accepted work. The affair was in the nature of a surprise party for Mr. Fortier, as he knew nothing of the plans until he saw a dozen unexpected guests at his door. He bade all welcome, and a very pleasant evening was passed. Violin selections were rendered by several of those present and Mr. Fortier entertained with mouth organ selections. Vocal with mouth organ selections. Vocal solos were rendered, all joining in the chorus, and about 9.30 o'clock refreshments of ham and cheese sandwiches, he would always remember the pleas-ant relations that had existed be-tween him and his friends during his residence here. The guests departed at a late hour, all wishing him a prosperous future. Mr. Fortier came here from New York last year.

WEDDING

Woodmansee-Baker. Phone 402

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. George Baker, 277 Prospect street, Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, when her daughter Emma was inited in marriage to Henry P. Woodmansee of this city by Rev. F. J. Bohanan, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal church. The bride was gowned in a handsome dress of white charmeuse with shadow lace trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Mar-garet Baker, sister of the bride, who was gowned in a dress of pink silk crepe and carried pink carnations. The est man was Walter J. Woodmansee brother of the groom,

The wedding was a quiet one, owing to the recent death in the bride's familp, and only immediate members of the families were present. The wedding gifts were numerous, showing the esteem in which the young couple were held. The bride's traveling suit was of navy blue garbardine with hat to match. After the ceremony a buffet lunch was served. Later in the evening the happy couple left for a wed-ding tour to New York and Washingding tour to New York and Washing-ton. They will be at home at 24 Coit street after June 1.

White Elephants Win from White Sox The White Elephants met the White Sox in battle royal Monday afternoon Sox in battle royal Monday afternoon after school, defeating them by the amounting to $28.42 for a suppurating score of 20 to 13. The game was the wound of the third finger of the right opening game of the season for both hand, involving finger and quarter teams, who state that they are going to make a few changes in their line-ups. In the first inning both teams played rather loosely, but afterwards they buckled up, and from then on the game was fast. The teams were tied, 8 to 8, in the fourth inning, but the White Elephants broke the tie and gradually pulled ahead of their oppotie and

TAKES APPEAL FROM

BOARD OF RELIEF New York Man Claims He Is Taxed Too High in Waterford.

Emile Utard of New York, owner of house and land at Waterford, has taken an appeal from the Waterford board of relief's action in making the assessment on his property in the Waterford grand list at $11,000, the suit being returnable before the superior court on the first Tuesday in May. In 1913, the complaint states the Waterford board of assessors put the Utard property in the tax list at the sum of $12,000. Upon appeal to the Waterford board of relief to have the valuation reduced to a fair market value, the board reduced the grand list figure by $1,000, but the Plaintiff claims that the present sum at which the property is in the list, viz, $11,000, is excessive and unfair and should be still further reduced.

It was known that he was a very sick man, but all telleved that if he could pull through Thursday night he would live, but he passed away at about 11 o'clock. This is the second death in the family this week, Mrs. Penn, who died in Noank, being his sister. He leaves, besides his wife and two daughters, two sisters Mrs. William Parlow of Fishers Island and Mrs. John Chapman of West Mys-tic. Four brothers are left, Calvin of Pishers Island, Albert of Noank, War-ren of Mystic and George of Noank Captain Rathbun was a man who spread good cheer all around and with all those with whom he came in contact made friends. He went to the is-land some years ago and there met his wife, then Mary Gallager. He was an expert boatman and painter, painting in winter and going on some pleasure beat summers. He has ewned several pleasure boats. For a number of years he was employed by Mr. and Mrs. R.

P. Linderman. For the last few sea-sons he has been master of E. M. Treat's yacht. Mrs. Lucius Dabney.

(Contributed.) The death of Josephine, wife of Deacon Lucius Dabney, occurred on Monday morning at 8:55 o'clock at her home, No. 21 Pine street, following an illness of two weeks with grip and pneumonia. She was a member of Grace Memorial Baptist church and a woman of excellent Christian qualities meeting the call peacefully and woman of excellent Christian quali-tles, meeting the call peacefully and resignedly, and speaking with conf-dence of her belief that she was going home to rest with God. She asked that those at her bedside would sing a verse of the hymn Sometime We'll Stand Before the Judgment Bar, joining with them as they sang, and pass-ing on with her face beaming with glory.

She had been a resident of this city for the last 32 years and was born in Richmond, Va., where she was mar-ried on Nov. 13, 1872, to Lucius Dabnemah company of Taftville over the valuation of $13,125 placed on land of the company by the $1 isbon assessors and on which the board of relief refused to make any reduction as prayed for by the company.

The complaint alleges that on January 31, 1914, the company's land in question consists of 140 acres but that it was put in the list by the assessors at 175 at a valuation of $13,125 and that upon application to the board of relief they refused either to reduce the acreage or the valuation. The company appeals to the superior court to give relief along these lines.
